October 27th through November 4th will see 9 days of arm wrenching action in Tennessee for an official American Carp Society Sanctioned event!

We currently have 28 anglers registered from 7 different States participating! Tennessee, Ohio, Kentucky, North Carolina, Indiana, Georgia, and California !

This is the venue where 7 months ago over 5300lb of carp were caught by 11 anglers in just a few days! Dates : October 27th through November 4th.

Accommodations : Caney Creek Inn ... special discount rate of $ 50.00 a night Sun - Thur and $55.00 a night Fri - Sat. (865) 882-5340

Location : Kingston Tennessee. Directions to the venue and motel at the following link.

Sponsored by the American Carp Society, Resistance Tackle, and K-1 Baits. K-1 Baits will be available on site ... Boilies, Maize, and all Flavorings.

Prizes include official American Carp Society Reuben Heaton Specimen Hunter Scales for the largest carp of the event and a Resistance Tackle Deluxe Brolly for the largest Mirror of the event.

In addition to the Reuben Heaton Scales the angler that catches the largest fish of this event will get an official plaque proclaiming them as The Carp King of Tennessee and a K-1 Baits gift certificate.

A variety of carp fishing techniques and gear will be on hand from Euro Style to traditional Pay Lake methods

This event is free to attend to the and is going to be a terrific learning experience as well as a chance to spend some bank time with a great group of carp anglers.

This is an informal fun event with no official peg draw ... we ask for catch and release and single hook use only and sportsmanship of the highest degree.
