

Kids N' Carp

Written by chris bennett
Monday, 25 May 2009 17:42

When fishing carp I always seem to attract a following of kids amazed by the fight and size of my catch. I will hook the fish and let them play them. It is all great fun watching them fight gamely and splash around with the net. No doubt this is the best way to recruit new anglers to our sport and it's a hoot!